

Statement of Keiuna Davis
May 18, 2016

My name is Keiuna Davis and my wife Jamila Davis was killed in a truck crash caused by fatigue driver. We had just moved to Huntsville Alabama and only lived there for 1 week. Jamila had just gotten her dream job at the US postal service. While she was on her way home from work one afternoon at her new job, a fatigued truck driver fell asleep at the wheel and hit Jamila's vehicle. The driver admitted to the police that he passed out prior to driving through the median and hitting my wife head-on while he was on the wrong side of the road. We have four children whose lives will be forever changed and torn apart. Listed as the top 10 most dangerous job by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, truck driver hours should not be increased for their safety as well as others. I just want everyone to understand that both sides are affected by this.
